

MAKING PAPER BY HAND

Use the words in the box to help you complete this story of papermaking.

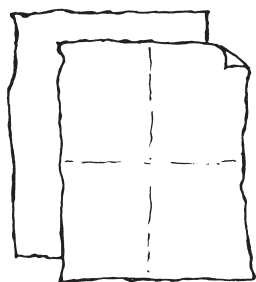

Paper used to be made from _____. Today, it is made from _____. The cotton is put into the _____ where it is beaten to a pulp. Size, starch and clean water are mixed with the pulp to make _____. The _____ dips a _____ into the vat of stuff. He gives the mould a three-way shake to make the sheets of paper. The _____ rolls the sheets out of the mould onto a woollen _____. The pile of blankets is put into a large _____. This squeezes out the _____. The sheets of paper are dried and then pressed again to make them _____.

mould	flat	Hollander Beater
coucher	press	cotton
blanket	stuff	water
		vatman

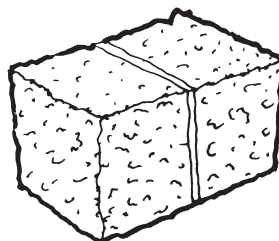

Using the numbers 1-4, put these pictures in the right order.

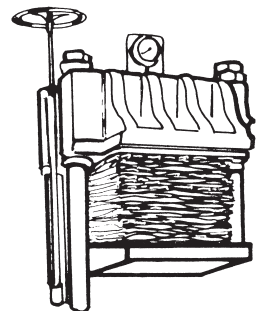

stuff

paper

cotton

press